(b) The Administrator or legal counsel designated by the Administrator, if service is made pursuant to section 6 of this regulation.

(a) Any written documentation kept by the employer in the ordinary course of business:

(1) Contemporaneously with the hiring of the injured employee.

(2) During the continued employment of the injured employee and before the date of the subsequent injury.

(3) At any time before the employee suffered the subsequent injury for which reimbursement is being requested.

(1) Became aware of the preexisting permanent physical impairment of the injured employee after the employee was hired and before the date of the subsequent injury; and

(2) Continued to employ the employee notwithstanding the employer's knowledge of the preexisting permanent physical impairment.

Sec. 9. 1. For the purposes of subsection 3 of NRS 616B.587, the ratings of permanent impairment of two or more body parts, organ systems or organ functions may not be added together or combined to reach a rating of permanent impairment of 6 percent or more of the whole person to qualify a condition as a permanent physical impairment.

2. The Administrator will use the American Medical Association's Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment as a reference for determining whether a rating of permanent impairment totals 6 percent or more of the whole person to qualify a condition as a permanent physical impairment pursuant to NRS 616B.587. Multiple body parts unrelated to a subsequent injury will not be considered as one impairment. Each body part, organ system or organ function included within a claim against the Subsequent Injury Account for Private Carriers must satisfy the definition of "permanent physical impairment" to qualify the body part, organ system or organ function for reimbursement under the claim.

Sec. 10. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 or by specific statute or regulation, the Administrator will authorize reimbursement from the Subsequent Injury Account for Private Carriers for the payment of benefits in the form of a lump sum if:

(a) The applicant meets the requirements of NRS 616B.587;

(b) The compensation paid was due;

(c) A lump-sum payment is reasonable, in the best interest of the injured employee and will eliminate any contingent future liability against the Subsequent Injury Account for Private Carriers; and

NAC 616B.481 Reserve Account to Protect Against Insolvency: Use; reimbursement by employer. (NRS 616B.309, 679B.130)

1. If a self-insured employer fails to pay compensation as a result of being insolvent as provided in NRS 616B.306, the Commissioner may use the Reserve Account, on behalf of that employer to:

(a) Directly pay compensation to the employees of the employer pursuant to chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, or chapter 617 of NRS; or

(b) Retain an administrator who shall, under the direction of the Commissioner, assume the responsibility for the administration of claims and payment of compensation pursuant to chapters 616A to 617, inclusive, of NRS.

2. A payment of a claim and the administrative cost from the Reserve Account does not release the self-insured employer or the surety from the employer's responsibility to pay the amounts due under chapters 616A to 617, inclusive, of NRS. The self-insured employer or the surety shall reimburse the Reserve Account for any expense incurred in the payment of claims on its behalf.

NAC 616B.484 Reserve Account to Protect Against Insolvency: Special assessments; notification by mail; failure to pay; exception. (NRS 616B.309, 679B.130)

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, if the Commissioner determines that the balance in the Reserve Account is insufficient to pay compensation on behalf of an insolvent self-insured employer or if an insolvent self-insured employer fails to reimburse the Account, the Commissioner will assess all employers certified as self-insurers on the date of the assessment, an amount determined by the Commissioner to either pay claims or restore the balance of the Reserve Account. After determining the amount necessary for the assessment, the Commissioner will mail, by regular mail, each self-insured employer a notice specifying the amount of the assessment and the date that it is due, at least 20 days before that date.

2. Each self-insured employer shall remit, on the date specified in the notice, to the Commissioner the total amount of the assessment. Failure by a self-insured employer to pay an assessment is prima facie evidence that the employer has intentionally failed to comply with the regulations of the Commissioner and is grounds for the imposition of a fine or the withdrawal of the certification as a self-insured employer pursuant to NRS 616B.318.

3. If:

- (a) The Reserve Account has been used to pay the claims of an insolvent self-insured employer;
- (b) That self-insured employer fails to reimburse the Reserve Account; and
- (c) The Commissioner determines that the balance of the Reserve Account is sufficient to pay compensation on behalf of other insolvent self-insured employers, the Commissioner may decide not to impose an assessment pursuant to this section against employers certified as self-insured employers on that date.

LIABILITY FOR PROVISION OF COVERAGE

Contractors, Sole Proprietors and Corporate Officers

NAC 616B.780 Establishment of employer-employee relationship; liability of principal contractor for premiums. (NRS 616A.400)

1. An employer who hires a person to do work related to, or in furtherance of, his or her business operations that are insured by a private carrier is presumed to have established an employer-employee relationship between himself or herself and the person performing the work in the absence of a written contract between the two parties which establishes that no employer-employee relationship exists between the two parties, in accordance with chapters 616A to 617, inclusive, of NRS.

2. If a subcontractor or independent contractor does not have an active policy with a private carrier, the principal contractor must be assessed premiums based on:

- (a) The payroll for the period of the contract with the subcontractor or independent contractor;
- (b) The appropriate classification for the work performed by the subcontractor or independent contractor; and
- (c) The experience modification factor of the principal contractor.

3. A principal contractor may provide the complete payroll records of the employees of each uninsured subcontractor and independent contractor. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if the principal contractor does not provide the complete payroll records of the uninsured subcontractors and independent contractors, the full contract price shall be deemed to be the payroll for the employees of the subcontractors and independent contractors. If the contract is for labor and materials or labor and equipment and evidence is provided to the private carrier which indicates the portion of the contract price that is for labor, that amount may be deemed the payroll for the employees of the subcontractor or independent contractor. If such an amount is not indicated in the contract, the private carrier shall determine what portion of the contract price will be deemed the payroll for the employees of the subcontractor or independent contractor. In no case may the payroll used to calculate the premiums of the principal contractor be less than the portion of the contract price that is for labor.

4. If a subcontractor or independent contractor has a policy with a private carrier but fails to pay the proper premiums, the principal contractor is liable for the amount of any unpaid premiums based on the rate and modification factor for premiums of the subcontractor or independent contractor.

If the private carrier determines that the sole proprietor is acting only as a principal contractor, the private carrier shall terminate his or her deemed wage effective on the date of receipt of the written notice. The termination of the deemed wage must not be made retroactive to a date before receipt of the written notice by the private carrier. If, after the termination of the deemed wage, the private carrier determines that the sole proprietor was at any time acting as a subcontractor, the private carrier shall reinstate the deemed wage effective on the date on which it was terminated, but in no case may it be made retroactive for more than 3 years or to the date of the last audit, whichever is more recent.
