Bulletin MCS 1904

July 16, 2019

Accepted Contractor License Classifications

When applying for permits from the Mechanical Compliance Section for the construction, alteration or relocation of elevators, boilers, pressure vessels, and/or related equipment, the following licenses issued by the Nevada State Contractors' Board will be accepted, insofar as the license is applicable to the desired permit:

For Boilers and Pressure Vessels

- C-1 Plumbing and heating, including subclassifications C-1a, C-1d, and C-1h
- C-21 Refrigeration and air-conditioning, including subclassifications C-21a, C-21b, and C-21f
- C-28 Fabricating tanks, including subclassification C-28a
- C-40 Specialties not authorized by other classifications
- A-10 Commercial and Residential Pools, including subclassifications A-10a, A-10b, A-10c, and A-10e
- A-23 Unclassified

For Elevators

- C-7 Elevation and conveyance, including subclassifications C-7a, C-7b, C-7c, and C-7d
- C-14 Steel reinforcing and erection, including subclassifications C-14b and C-14j

If the Nevada State Contractors' Board has issued a ruling regarding the holder of any other license classification as qualified for work on boilers, pressure vessels, or elevators, such ruling shall be accepted by the Mechanical Compliance Section.
