Is there a waiting period for workers' compensation coverage?

No. From the moment they are hired, employees are covered by the applicable statutes and regulations of Nevada Revised Statutes and Nevada Administrative Code 616 and 617 and must be insured by their employers.

Do employees who are family members have to be insured?

The short answer is yes. A short recap of information found in the Nevada Employer's Guide to Workers' Compensation provides the answer: <http://dir.nv.gov/WCS/Employers/>

Does an out-of-state company have to provide Nevada workers' compensation insurance?

It depends on many conditions. NRS 616B.600 describes in detail the exemptions and requirements of out-of-state employers with workers in Nevada.

Are sole proprietors required to have workers' compensation insurance?

Although a sole proprietor having no employees is not required to maintain workers' compensation insurance on himself/herself, the sole proprietor may elect to secure coverage for himself/herself. However, if there are any employees working for the sole proprietor, then the sole proprietor must maintain workers' compensation insurance on them. In addition, sole proprietors who are contractors as defined in NRS 624.020, operating within the scope of their license, must secure coverage.

What type of workers' compensation benefits are employees entitled to?

These benefits may include (among others):

- Medical treatment
- Lost time compensation (Temporary Total Disability/Temporary Partial Disability)
- Permanent Partial Disability (PPD)
- Permanent Total Disability (PTD)
- Vocational Rehabilitation
- Dependent's benefits in the event of death

- Held financially responsible for all costs arising from a work-related injury
- In addition, may be subject to a criminal penalty for claims resulting in substantial bodily harm or death (NRS 616D.200 & NAC 616D.345).

How do I report workers' comp fraud?

The Attorney General's Workers' Compensation Fraud Unit investigates allegations related to claimant, employer, and provider fraud on behalf of the state and self-insured employers. This unit is also generally responsible for the investigation of any fraud related to the administration of workers' compensation. Report suspected fraud to the AG Fraud Hotline: 1-800-266-8688. More information for detecting possible fraud is available on their website at: http://ag.nv.gov/About/Criminal Justice/Workers comp/

How do I verify an employer's worker's comp coverage?

DIR/WCS's Coverage Verification Service \(CVS\) can help users verify workers' compensation coverage of employers who have policies with private carriers. CVS searches can indicate policy coverage status on current and past dates. <http://dir.nv.gov/WCS/Home/>

Note: CVS will not display self-insured employers. A listing of self-insured employers is available on the Division of Insurance website: <http://doi.nv.gov>

Do I have the right to reopen my claim in the future?

NRS 616C.390 details the requirements, procedure and limitations of claim reopening. Also, the Nevada Attorney for Injured Workers has compiled helpful suggestions for claim reopening. <http://naiw.nv.gov/>

Must an injured worker accept the offer of a light duty job?

An injured worker who rejects a light duty offer made in accordance with NRS 616C.475 and NAC 616C.583 risks the discontinuation of temporary total disability compensation.

What will happen to an employer who fails to obtain or maintain workers' compensation insurance?

The Division of Industrial Relations, Workers' Compensation Section (WCS) is responsible for ensuring that all employers are in compliance with the law. Employers who do not provide workers' compensation will be charged with an administrative fine up to $15,000; appropriate premium penalties; may be ordered to close business until insurance has been obtained; and will be held financially responsible for all costs arising from a work-related injury. In addition, the uninsured employer may be subject to a criminal penalty for claims resulting in substantial bodily harm or death. (NRS 616D.200 & NAC 616D.345)

What protection is provided for the employer?

Because Nevada has "exclusive remedy," the injured workers' benefits are set forth in the statutes. Employers who provide coverage for their employees at the time of injury are protected from any additional damages claimed by their employees as a result of an injury on the job. This protection is established when the injured employee opts to receive workers' compensation benefits.

How do the Subsequent Injury Accounts benefit employers?

The Subsequent Injury Accounts encourage employers to hire workers with a permanent physical impairment. The costs of any qualified subsequent injury are paid from the appropriate subsequent injury account. (NRS 616B.545 – 590) Contact Blanca Villarreal-Rodriguez at (702) 486-9181 or brodriguez@dir.nv.gov for more information.

What do I do if I get hurt on the job?
