

What Is Worker Misclassification?

Higinio Ramos, District Director, U.S. Department of Labor - District Director Gene Ramos hails from New York City, NY (The Bronx). He joined Wage and Hour in March of 1999 after an amazing career in the U.S. Air Force. He started out as an Investigator in the Las Vegas Field Office. In 2010 when the Las Vegas Field Office became a District Office he was promoted as one of the first Assistant District Directors. Just at the start of the pandemic in March of 2020 Gene was selected as the District Director. He has three adult children: Brandon; Sandra and Monica who are his pride and joy. Brandon is a performing artist in the Washington D.C. area; Sandra and Monica are both schoolteachers in Las Vegas. Gene spends his weekends at the gym (playing basketball); as well as attending as many theater plays as he can. He's a die-hard NY Yankees fan and sheepishly admits to being a Dallas Cowboys fan.
