

Mild Traumatic Brain Injury (MTBI): Silent, Subtle and Treatable
&
Neurological Consequences of COVID-19 – Practical Treatment Considerations

Gary Seale, Ph.D., LPA, LCDC, Regional Director of Clinical Services, Centre for Neuro Skills - He received his doctoral degree in Rehabilitation Science from the University of Texas Medical Branch (UTMB) in Galveston, Texas. He is dual licensed in Texas as a Chemical Dependency Counselor, and Psychological Associate with Independent Practice, and he holds a clinical appointment at UTMB in the School of Health Professions – Department of Rehabilitation Science. He has worked exclusively in post-acute brain injury rehabilitation for over 30 years and has conducted research and published peer-reviewed articles on topics including neurorehabilitation outcomes, the relationship between positive emotion and recovery of functional status following stroke, and emergency preparedness for disabled populations.