

Putting Humpty Together Again – The Noble Purpose of Whole Person Recovery

Robert Wilson, President, WorkCompCollege.com - is a founding partner and President of WorkCompCollege.com, a service dedicated to providing “Whole Person Recovery Management” training and certification for the workers’ compensation industry. Prior to this position he was the co-founder and CEO of WorkersCompensation.com. He spent almost 23 years in that position, where he established innovative data services for the workers’ compensation industry. He is an experienced presenter for the workers’ compensation industry and is the author of “From Bob’s Cluttered Desk”, a blog repeatedly named as a top workers’ compensation blog by LexisNexis. Additionally, he has been named one of the “50 Most Influential People in Workers’ Comp” by the SEAK National Workers’ Compensation and Occupational Medicine Conference and received the Comp Laude Industry Leader Award in 2019. Known for an extraordinary sense of humor, his presentations reflect both entertaining and practical advice for both people managing claims as well as the people “picking up the tab”. Bob serves on the Board of Directors for Kids’ Chance of America, Inc., and is a founding board member and president of Kids Chance of Florida, Inc. He resides with his wife in Bradenton, FL.
